

Meet Our Board of Directors

Jordan Pine - President, Founder & CEO

Jordan is the Founder & CEO of Greenlight Operation. She received her Bachelor's Degree in Politics and minor in Criminal Justice from Messiah College and holds over a decade of experience in the anti-human trafficking movement and in nonprofit leadership. Jordan is a leading voice in Pennsylvania educating about human trafficking and how to strategically combat it. Her work is driven by her desire to see an end to modern-day slavery and survivors restored.

Pastor James Dinger - Secretary

Jim serves as the lead pastor of Pathway Community Church. He has his B.S.B.A. from Edinboro University, a degree in Marketing from the Katz School of Business at University Of Pittsburgh, and a degree in Bible from Berean School of the Bible. Jim has over two decades of executive-level management experience in marketing and business development. Greenlight Operation is grateful for his passion to combat human trafficking and willingness to utilize his years of leadership experience to advance freedom.

Amy Thurston

Amy is the Co-Founder and President of Hope Inspire Love. She works passionately to abolish modern-day slavery and provide freedom to victims. She holds a degree in Christian Leadership from Southeastern University and has a background in youth ministry and counseling. She is also a life coach and credentialed minister, speaker, and educator—crucial skills invaluable to Greenlight Operation's mission.

Meet Our Board of Directors

David Baechtle

David retired from TE Connectivity, previously known as Tyco Electronics, as the Senior Manager of the Engineering Excellence and Lab Management for Aerospace, Defense and Marine Business Unit. He received his Master's Degree in Mechanical Engineering from Clarkson University. David's wisdom and experience, especially in organizational leadership, is valuable to the team and Greenlight Operation's sustainable growth.

RJ Oommen

RJ recently retired as the Principal of ImageTech Systems, Inc. after 25 years of service. He has a Bachelor's Degree in Accounting with a minor in Computer Science from Messiah University, and a Masters Degree from Villanova University. He and his wife Lisa have a heart for furthering Greenlight Operation's mission of seeing a world where human trafficking is combated, exposed for the evil it is, prevented, and survivors provided with a safe environment in which to heal and be restored in a substantive way.

Maryssa Chaplin

Maryssa works as a Real Estate Agent for the Chaplin Group of Keller Williams of Central PA and specializes in transactions and project management. She has her Bachelor's Degree from Southeastern University, and has vast experience in leadership and nonprofit boards. Thanks to her extensive knowledge of the real estate market, Greenlight Operation was able to identify the perfect house for our restoration home.

